

Managed DaaS on Azure

Four in five organizations now have a multi-cloud strategy

Cloud spending is on the rise as two-thirds of cloud users have increased spending by at least 20% in 2018.

The RightScale report, 2018.

By 2020 60% of Global 2000 companies will double their productivity via the cloud.

IDC FutureScape: Worldwide IT Industry 2018 Predictions.

Most enterprises have already started transitioning their workloads to the Cloud in order to address the rising demands of end-users for access to data and applications within enterprises. However, this is a complex process and require specialized skills to securely make available enterprise applications on devices across operating systems.

51% plan to move more workloads to the cloud.

The RightScale report, 2018.

Managed DaaS on Azure

Anunta, a recognized specialist in Cloud and Virtualization technologies, offers Managed DaaS on Azure - a Microsoft Azure-based Cloud desktop that includes end-to-end management of your entire virtualized infrastructure with guaranteed SLAs to provide end-users with ready to use desktops.

Design & Consulting

Onboarding and Implementation

End-to-End Support

Benefits

Built on highly scalable and robust platform using Azure with high security and simplified management.

Zero upfront cost as it is available on 'pay as you go' model.

Significant savings on maintaining highly skilled in-house resources, translating to reduced TCO.

Seamless upgrade to Windows Virtual Desktop (WVD); including, multi-user WVD only available on Azure.

Robust security policies enable you to implement BYOD policies that allow end-users to access data and applications through devices of their choice without compromising on security and compliance.

Compatible with O365 with single license from Microsoft.

Centralized management aids rapid scaling up and down.

End-to-end implementation and integration with existing applications and peripherals.

Fully managed desktop with comprehensive Help Desk and Single point of accountability for all end-user performance issues.

Easy backup and DR solution available at low additional cost.

Learn How Anunta can accelerate your EUC transformation and deliver unmatched end-user experience for your always connected workforce.

Click here to know more